The Committee and the Parties considered the following:

- Draft Procedural Order No. 1 circulated by the Committee Secretary on February 6, 2026. In accordance with Arbitration Rule 72, “the procedural agreements and orders on matters addressed at the first session of the original Tribunal shall continue to apply to an [...] annulment proceeding, with necessary modifications, unless the parties agree or the [...] Committee orders otherwise”; and

Procedural Order No. 1

- The Parties' comments on the Draft Procedural Order No. 1 received on February 23, 2026, indicating the items on which they agreed and their respective positions regarding the items on which they did not agree.

Having considered the above documents and the Parties' views, the Committee now issues the present Order:

Order

Pursuant to ICSID Arbitration Rules 27, 29 and 72, this Procedural Order sets out the Procedural Rules that govern this arbitration. The Procedural Timetable is attached as Annex B. Amendments to the Procedural Timetable will be made by reissuing Annex B.

1. Applicable Arbitration Rules

Convention Articles 44 and 52(4); Arbitration Rules 1 and 72

- 1.1. These proceedings are conducted in accordance with the ICSID Arbitration Rules in force as of July 1, 2022. In accordance with Arbitration Rule 72, the Arbitration Rules apply, mutatis mutandis, to annulment proceedings.

2. Constitution of the Committee and Committee Members' Declarations

Convention Article 52(3); Arbitration Rules 21 and 71

- 2.1. The Committee was constituted on January 26, 2026, in accordance with the ICSID Convention and the ICSID Arbitration Rules. The Parties confirmed that the Committee was properly constituted and that no Party has any objection to the appointment of any Member of the Committee.
- 2.2. The Members of the Committee timely submitted their signed declarations in accordance with ICSID Arbitration Rule 19(3). Copies of these declarations were distributed to the Parties by the ICSID Secretariat on January 26, 2026.
- 2.3. The Members of the Committee confirmed that they have sufficient availability during the next 24 months to dedicate to this case and that they will use best efforts to meet all time limits for orders, decisions and the decision on Annulment, in accordance with ICSID Arbitration Rule 12(1).

3. Fees and Expenses of Committee Members

Convention Article 60; Administrative and Financial Regulation 14; ICSID Schedule of Fees; Memorandum on Fees and Expenses

- 3.1. The fees and expenses of each Member of the Committee shall be determined and paid in accordance with the ICSID Schedule of Fees and the Memorandum on Fees and Expenses in force at the time the fees and expenses are incurred.

4. Presence and Quorum

Arbitration Rule 33

- 4.1. The participation of a majority of the members of the Committee by any appropriate means of communications is required at the first session, case management conferences, hearings and deliberations, except as otherwise provided in the Arbitration Rules or unless the Parties agree otherwise.

5. Rulings of the Committee

Convention Article 48(1); Arbitration Rules 10, 11(4), 12, 27 and 35

- 5.1. Decisions of the Committee shall be taken by a majority of the Members of the Committee.
- 5.2. Orders, decisions and the decision on annulment may be made by any appropriate means of communication. In particular, for the avoidance of doubt, orders, decisions and the decision on annulment may be made by electronic mail.
- 5.3. Orders, decisions and the decision on annulment may be signed electronically.
- 5.4. The President is authorized to sign procedural orders and decisions on behalf of the Committee.
- 5.5. When the matter is urgent, the President may decide procedural matters without consulting the other Members, subject to possible reconsideration of any such decision by the full Committee.
- 5.6. The Committee's orders and decisions shall indicate the reasons upon which they are made. No reasons need to be provided for non-controversial or minor procedural, administrative and organizational matters, e.g., extensions of time.
- 5.7. The Committee will use best efforts to issue all rulings, including the decision on annulment, within the time limits prescribed by the ICSID Arbitration Rules. If the Committee cannot comply with an applicable time limit, it will advise the Parties of the special circumstances justifying the delay and the date when it anticipates rendering the ruling, in accordance with ICSID Arbitration Rule 12(2).

- 5.8. Any ruling of the Committee, including the certified copy of the decision on annulment, will be dispatched electronically to the Parties.
- 5.9. The Committee's rulings on procedural matters shall be communicated to the Parties and may be conveyed by the Committee Secretary in the form of a letter or e-mail.

6. Power to Fix Time Limits

Arbitration Rules 10 and 11

- 6.1. The President may exercise the Committee's power to fix and extend time limits for the completion of each procedural step in the proceeding under Arbitration Rules 10(1) and 11(3), in accordance with Arbitration Rules 10(3) and 11(4).
- 6.2. In exercising the power to fix time limits under Arbitration Rule 10(1), the President shall consult with the Parties as far as possible. If the matter is urgent, the President may fix time limits without consulting the Parties, subject to possible reconsideration of any such decision by the full Committee.
- 6.3. Short extensions of time may be agreed between the Parties as long as (i) they do not materially affect the overall schedule of the procedure as set out in Annex B and (ii) the Committee is informed. Neither Party will request an extension of time from the Committee without first having attempted to seek agreement from the other Party, if it is reasonably possible to do so.
- 6.4. The Parties agree that a time limit shall be satisfied if a procedural step is taken or a document is received by the Committee Secretary on the relevant date, or on the subsequent business day at the seat of the Centre if the time limit falls on a Saturday or Sunday. A time limit shall be computed from the date on which the limit is announced, the day of such announcement being excluded from the calculation.

7. Secretary of the Committee

Administrative and Financial Regulation 28

- 7.1. The Committee Secretary is Ms. Leah W. Njoroge, Legal Counsel, ICSID, or such other person as ICSID may notify the Committee and the Parties from time to time.

- 8.2. The Committee may refuse designation of additional agents, counsel, or advocates if the designation would create a non-waivable conflict of interest with one or more Members of the Committee.
- 8.3. Spentech Engineering Limited will be designated as the Claimant and United Arab Emirates will be designated as the Respondent, as in the original arbitration proceeding. The Party that filed the Application for Annulment, Spentech Engineering Limited, may also be referred to as the Applicant.

9. Apportionment of Costs and Advance Payments to ICSID – Division of Advances and Third-Party Funding
Convention Article 61(2); Administrative and Financial Regulation 15; Arbitration Rule 50; Arbitration Rule 14

- 9.1. In accordance with Administrative and Financial Regulation 15(5), the Applicant, in this case Spentech Engineering Limited, shall be solely responsible for making the advance payments requested by the ICSID Secretariat to cover the direct costs of the proceeding, without prejudice to the final decision of the Committee as to the allocation of costs.
- 9.2. By letter of December 9, 2025, ICSID requested the Applicant to make an advance payment of US$ 200,000 to cover the initial costs of the proceeding. ICSID received the Applicant's payment on January 7, 2026.
- 9.3. ICSID shall request further advances from the Applicant as needed. Such requests shall be accompanied by a detailed interim statement of account.
- 9.4. In application of Arbitration Rule 14, each Party shall, immediately upon concluding a third-party funding arrangement, disclose to the Centre, the Committee and the other Party, that it has third-party funding, provide the name and address of the third-party funder and, if the third-party funder is a juridical person, provide the names of the persons and entities that own and control it. For the purpose of this provision, the term “third-party funder” does not include shareholders, parent or affiliated entities of a Party.

10. Place of Proceeding and Hearings

Convention Articles 62 and 63; Arbitration Rule 32

- 10.1. Washington, D.C., United States, shall be the place of the proceeding.
- 10.2. The Committee may hold in-person hearings at any other place that it considers appropriate after consultation with the Parties. The method of holding a hearing will be determined in accordance with §20.2.
- 10.3. The Committee members may deliberate at any place and by any appropriate means they consider convenient.

11. Procedural Language, Translation and Interpretation

Administrative and Financial Regulation 32; Arbitration Rule 7

- 11.1. English is the procedural language of the arbitration.
- 11.2. The Committee and the Secretariat shall communicate with the Parties in the English language.
- 11.3. Documents filed in any other language must be accompanied by a translation into English.
- 11.4. It is sufficient to translate only the relevant part of a supporting document, unless the Committee orders a Party to provide a fuller or a complete translation.
- 11.5. Translations need not be certified, unless the translation is disputed, and the Committee orders a Party to provide a certified translation.
- 11.6. The costs of interpretation (if any) will be paid from the advance payments made to ICSID, without prejudice to the decision of the Committee as to which Party shall ultimately bear those costs.

12. Routing of Communications

Arbitration Rule 6

- 12.1. The ICSID Secretariat shall be the channel of written communications between the Parties and the Committee.

Procedural Order No. 1

- 12.2. Each Party's written communications shall be transmitted by email or other electronic means to the opposing Party and to the Committee Secretary, who shall send them to the Committee.
- 12.3. Electronic versions of communications ordered by the Committee to be filed simultaneously shall be transmitted to the Committee Secretary only, who shall send them to the opposing Party and the Committee once she has received both Parties' communications.
- 12.4. The Committee Secretary shall not be copied on direct communications between the Parties when such communications are not intended to be transmitted to the Committee.
- 12.5. The Parties and their representatives shall not engage in any oral or written communication with any Member of the Committee ex parte in connection with the proceeding.

13. Number of Copies and Method of Filing of Parties' Pleadings
Arbitration Rules 4, 5 and 9

13.1. The Parties shall:

- 13.1.1. by the relevant filing date, submit by email to the Committee Secretary and the opposing Party an electronic version of the pleading (with witness statements and expert reports, if any) and an updated index of all supporting documentation;¹ and
- 13.1.2. within three business days following the relevant filing date, upload the pleading with all the supporting documentation and an updated index to the file sharing platform that has been created by ICSID for purposes of this case.²

- 13.2. Electronic files of pleadings, witness statements, expert reports, exhibits and legal authorities shall be text searchable and unsecured/editable (i.e., OCR PDF or Word).

All pleadings shall contain consecutively numbered paragraphs and shall be accompanied by a cumulative index of all the supporting documentation that the Party has submitted up to the date of the pleading. The index shall indicate the document number, the pleading with which it was submitted, and shall follow the naming conventions contained in Annex A.

² Supporting documentation shall be uploaded as individual files, not in .zip format.

- 13.3. At the conclusion of the written phase of the proceeding, on a date to be determined by the Committee, or at any other time the Committee or the Secretariat so requests, the Parties shall upload to the file sharing platform, in a format that can be readily downloaded, an electronic copy of the entire case file (including pleadings, witness statements, expert reports, exhibits, legal authorities and Committee decisions and orders to date) with a consolidated hyperlinked index of all documents.³
- 13.4. The official date of receipt of a pleading or written communication shall be the day on which the electronic file is sent to the Committee Secretary by email.
- 13.5. In accordance with §6.4, a filing shall be deemed timely if sent by a Party by midnight, Washington, D.C. time, on the relevant date. If a filing falls on a Saturday or Sunday, the relevant date is the subsequent business day at the seat of the Centre.

14. Number and Sequence of Pleadings – Procedural Calendar
Arbitration Rule 72(3)

- 14.1. The number and sequence of pleadings shall be as provided in Annex B to this order.
- 14.2. In the first exchange of submissions (Memorial and Counter-Memorial on Annulment), the Parties shall set forth all the facts and legal arguments on which they intend to rely. Allegations of fact and legal arguments shall be presented in a detailed, specified and comprehensive manner, and shall respond to all allegations of fact and legal arguments made by the other Party.
- 14.3. In their second exchange of submissions (Reply and Rejoinder on Annulment), the Parties shall, in principle, limit themselves to responding to allegations of fact and legal arguments made by the other Party in the first exchange of submissions.
- 14.4. Following each factual allegation, the Parties shall, whenever possible, identify the evidence adduced or to be adduced in support of that allegation. Following each legal argument, the Parties shall, whenever possible, identify the legal authority adduced or to be adduced in support of that argument.

³ To ensure the full operation of the hyperlinked index, the entire folder shall be housed within one folder and then uploaded to BOX as a single zip file. Should the size of the zip file make the upload to BOX impossible, the parties may upload the organized folder to a designated sub-folder on to the BOX files sharing platform, in a sub-folder and including a consolidated (non-hyperlinked) index or arrange to courier the entire bundle with a hyperlinked index to the Members of the Committee.

15. Submission of Documents

Convention Article 44; Arbitration Rule 5

- 15.1. Documents, including exhibits and legal authorities, shall be submitted together with the Memorial or the written submission that refers to them according to the manner and form set forth in §13, above.
- 15.2. Neither Party shall be permitted to submit additional or responsive documents after the filing of its respective last written submission, unless the Committee determines that special circumstances exist based on a timely and reasoned written application followed by observations from the other Party.
 - 15.2.1. Should a Party request leave to file additional or responsive documents, that Party may not annex the documents that it seeks to file to its request.
 - 15.2.2. If the Committee grants the application for submission of an additional or responsive document, the Committee shall ensure that the other Party is afforded sufficient opportunity to make its observations concerning any such document.
- 15.3. The Committee may call upon the Parties to produce documents or other evidence in accordance with ICSID Arbitration Rule 36(3).
- 15.4. Given the nature of an annulment proceeding, the Committee expects that the Parties will refer primarily to the evidentiary record from the arbitration proceeding and it does not expect to receive new evidence (exhibits, witness statements or expert reports).
- 15.5. Therefore, without prejudice to each Party's right to submit new legal authorities, no new evidence shall be admitted in this proceeding, unless the Committee determines that special circumstances exist based on a reasoned written request followed by observations from the other Party.
- 15.6. Any documents introduced as exhibits or legal authorities in the annulment proceeding shall be labelled with numbers, and organized in a clear order:
 - 15.6.1. Exhibits and legal authorities already included in the evidentiary record of the underlying arbitration proceeding shall be submitted in PDF format using the same numbering as in the arbitration proceeding (i.e., for the Claimant include reference to the numbering used in the arbitration proceeding e.g. "C-0001" for factual exhibits and "CLA-0001" for legal authorities and for the Respondent include reference to the numbering used in the arbitration proceeding e.g. "R-0001" for factual exhibits and "RLA-0001" for legal authorities.

- 15.6.2. New exhibits admitted in accordance with §15.5 (if any), and legal authorities (if any), shall use numbering that continues from the numbering used in the underlying arbitration as summarized in §15.6.1 above. Each Party shall number any new exhibit and legal authorities consecutively throughout the entire annulment proceeding.
- 15.6.3. The Parties did not submit witness statements or expert reports in the underlying arbitration proceeding. Any new witness statements or expert reports admitted in the annulment proceeding in accordance with §15.5, shall be labelled according to the naming convention contained in Annex A.
- 15.6.4. Electronic files and the accompanying indexes shall follow the naming conventions contained in Annex A.
- 15.6.5. Copies of documentary evidence shall be assumed to be authentic unless specifically objected to by a Party, in which case the Committee will determine whether authentication is necessary.
- 15.6.6. The Parties shall file all documents only once by submitting them with their pleadings. Documents need not be resubmitted with witness statements or expert reports even if referred to in such statements.
- 15.6.7. The Parties may use PowerPoint slides and demonstrative exhibits (such as charts, tabulations, etc. compiling information which is on record but not presented in such form), provided that they (i) identify the source in the record from which the information is derived, (ii) do not contain information not in the record.
- 15.7. An electronic copy of each demonstrative exhibit, other than PowerPoint slides, shall be distributed by the Party intending to use it via an electronic mail sent to the entire case email distribution list for each Party, the Committee Members, the Committee Secretary, to the court reporter and to the interpreters, if any, as necessary by a time to be decided at a later stage by the Committee following consultation with the Parties.
- 15.8. In addition, promptly after the conclusion of the Hearing day on which the corresponding demonstrative exhibit is used, the Parties shall upload the exhibit to the case folder in the BOX files sharing platform, designating each with the corresponding CD-__ or RD-__ number.

16. Witness statements and Expert Reports

Convention Article 43(a); Arbitration Rule 38

16.1. When authorized by the Committee following the procedure outlined in §15.5, witness statements and expert reports shall be filed together with the Parties' pleadings.

16.2. Each witness statement and expert report shall be signed and dated by the witness.

17. Examination of Witnesses and Experts

Arbitration Rule 38

17.1. Examination of witnesses and experts, if any, will be discussed by the Parties once submissions have been filed.

18. Pre-Hearing Organizational Meetings

Arbitration Rule 31

18.1. A pre-hearing organizational meeting shall be held at a date determined by the Committee after consultation with the Parties. It shall comprise a teleconference or videoconference between the Committee, or its President, and the Parties and should address any outstanding procedural, administrative, and logistical matters (including modality of interpretation and transcription) in preparation for the hearing.

18.2. At a date to be determined by the Committee, and in any event no later than the date of the pre-hearing conference, the Parties shall submit to the Committee jointly – or, where they are unable to agree, separately – a proposal regarding a daily schedule for the hearing.

19. Case Management Conferences

Arbitration Rule 31

19.1. The Committee may convene other case management conferences with the Parties in accordance with ICSID Arbitration Rule 31 if necessary or appropriate.

20. Hearings

Arbitration Rules 32 and 72(4)

20.1. The oral procedure shall consist of a hearing for oral arguments.

- 20.2. The hearing will be held in-person, at a place to be determined in accordance with §10 above.
- 20.3. Having due regard to the views of the Parties and the specific circumstances of the case, including any relevant travel or public health/security restrictions, the Committee may decide to hold a hearing remotely or in a hybrid form.
- 20.4. The hearing shall take place on the dates indicated in the Procedural Timetable attached as Annex B.
- 20.5. The Members of the Committee shall reserve at least one day immediately after the hearing to determine the next steps and to hold deliberations.
- 20.6. In principle, each Party will have an equal time allocation for the hearing, subject to adjustments in the Committee's discretion. The allocation will be discussed at the case management conference for hearing organization and set by the Committee, which may grant short extensions if appropriate under the circumstances.

21. Recordings of Hearings and Sessions

Arbitration Rule 29(4)(i)

- 21.1. Audio recordings shall be made of all hearings and sessions. The recordings shall be provided to the Parties and the Committee Members.
- 21.2. Verbatim transcript(s) in the procedural language(s) shall be made of any hearing and session other than sessions on procedural issues. Unless otherwise agreed by the Parties or ordered by the Committee, the verbatim transcripts shall, if possible, be available in real-time and electronic transcripts shall be provided to the Parties and the Committee on a same-day basis.
- 21.3. The Parties shall agree on any corrections to the transcripts within a time limit to be fixed at the end of the hearing. The agreed corrections may be entered by the court reporter in the transcripts ("revised transcripts"). The Committee shall decide upon any disagreement between the Parties and any correction adopted by the Committee shall be entered by the court reporter in the revised transcripts.

22. Post-Hearing Memorials and Statements of Costs

Convention Article 44; Arbitration Rule 51

- 22.1. At or before the hearing, the Committee shall decide, following consultation with the Parties, whether and when the Parties shall submit post-hearing submissions and replies to post-hearing submissions. Should the Committee request post-hearing submissions, no additional evidence (including documents, witness statements or expert report) may be produced with them, except with leave from the Committee after having heard the other Party, or on the request of the Committee.

- 22.2. The Committee may, following consultation with the Parties, fix a page-limit for post-hearing submissions and replies to post-hearing submissions.
- 22.3. At or before the hearing, the Committee shall fix, following consultation with the Parties, the date for the submissions on costs.

23. Transparency matters

Convention Article 48(5), Arbitration Rules 62-66

- 23.1. The Parties agree that the transparency regime governing these proceedings is dealt with in Procedural Order No. 2 dated November 8, 2024.
- 23.2. In accordance with Arbitration Rule 72(2), and footnote 1 of Procedural Order No. 2 dated November 8, 2024, this procedural order shall continue to apply to an annulment proceeding. Any reference to Tribunal shall be understood as a reference to the Committee, and references to the Award are understood to be to the Decision on Annulment.

24. Data Privacy and Cybersecurity

- 24.1. The Members of the Committee, the Parties and their representatives acknowledge that the processing of their personal data is necessary for the purposes of this annulment proceeding. They acknowledge having read ICSID's "Personal Data Privacy Notice – Proceedings" ("Notice").
- 24.2. The Members of the Committee, the Parties and their representatives agree to comply with all applicable data protection and privacy regulations, including providing appropriate notice to data subjects whose personal data will be processed in the arbitration proceeding, where necessary. Should compliance with applicable law require action from another participant in the arbitration proceeding, the Parties are invited to bring that to the attention of that other participant and/or to apply to the Committee for specific data protection measures to be put in place.
- 24.3. The Parties and their representatives shall ensure that the storage and exchange of the personal data processed in this arbitration is protected by way of appropriate technical and organizational safeguards.

25. Disability Inclusion

- 25.1. At any point during the proceedings, but ideally as soon as practicable, either Party may advise the Committee of a person who, by reason of disability, requires reasonable accommodation to facilitate their full participation in the arbitration, including oral hearings. In considering such requests, the Committee will take account of the privacy rights of such persons against the unnecessary disclosure of their disability. For the purposes of this provision, disability means any physical or mental health condition that, without reasonable accommodation, would significantly impair a person's ability to participate in work related to an arbitration.

On behalf of the Committee,

[signed]

Prof. ~~Andrea K.~~ Bjorklund
President of the Committee

Annex A – Electronic File Naming Guidelines

Please follow these guidelines when naming electronic files and for the accompanying Consolidated Hyperlinked Index. The examples provided (in italics) are for demonstration purposes only and should be adapted to the relevant phase of the case.

All pleadings and accompanying documentation shall indicate the LANGUAGE in which they are submitted (e.g. SPA=Spanish; FR=French; ENG= English). Such indication should be reflected both i) in the name used to identify each individual electronic file and ii) in the Consolidated Hyperlinked Index (which shall be attached to each submission).

For cases with a single procedural language, the “LANGUAGE” designation may be omitted, except for documents in a language other than the procedural language and the corresponding translations.
