

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

GUJARAT STATE PETROLEUM
CORPORATION LTD. et al.,

Plaintiffs,

v.

REPUBLIC OF YEMEN et al.,

Defendants.

Civil Action No. 16-cv-1383 (DLF)

ORDER AND DEFAULT JUDGMENT

Upon consideration of petitioners Gujarat State Petroleum Corporation Ltd., Alkor Petroo Ltd., and Western Drilling Contractors Private Ltd.'s (collectively, "petitioners") Petition to Confirm Arbitral Award, Dkt. 1, and the petitioners' evidentiary submissions, along with the petitioners' Motion for Default Judgment and Confirmation of Arbitral Award, Dkt. 24, it is ORDERED that the petitioners' Motion for Default Judgment and Confirmation of Arbitral Award, Dkt. 24, is GRANTED.

ORDERED that the final arbitral award, issued June 10, 2015, by the International Court of Arbitration of the ICC in the matter denominated Gujarat State Petroleum Corporation Limited, Alkor Petroo Limited and Western Drilling Contractors Private Limited v. Republic of Yemen and The Yemeni Ministry of Oil and Minerals, Case No. 19299/MCP, is CONFIRMED, pursuant to the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. § 207.

ORDERED that judgment is entered in favor of the petitioners and against respondents Republic of Yemen and Yemeni Ministry of Oil and Minerals, in the amount of $3,788,471.34, as set forth in the final arbitral award. This amount reflects the sum total of the following:

- $3,012,059.09 for costs and expenses incurred by the petitioners in connection with the preparation for and conduct of the arbitration, including ICC administrative expenses and arbitrator's fees and expenses, as set out in the final award; and
- $776,412.25 for costs incurred by the petitioners in extending letters of credit, as set out in the final award.

ORDERED that the Court CONFIRMS the award of post-judgment interest in favor of the petitioners and, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1961, ENTERS judgment for post-judgment interest at the statutory rate, from the date of this Judgment until the date of full payment.

DABNEY L. FRIEDRICH
United States District Judge

Date: October 3, 2018