Case No. 763

Chamber Three

Award No. 162-763-3

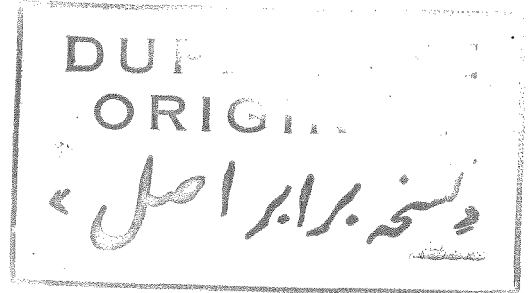

MANUCHEHR HADDADI,

Claimant,

and

THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Respondent.

CONCURRING OPINION OF CHARLES N. BROWER

It is ironic that Claimant in effect urges the Tribunal (Chamber Three) in this case to arrive at a result contrary to the award rendered by Chamber One in Lillian Byrdine Grimm and The Islamic Republic of Iran, Award No. 25-71-1 (22 February 1983) and instead to adopt the Dissenting Opinion of Howard M. Holtzmann (22 March 1983) thereto. The Tribunal correctly finds that Claimant has not pleaded a "property interest" and thus it is not required to address the question treated in Grimm of whether or not any such interest was "affected" by the alleged acts of Respondent. Therefore this Award expresses no opinion on that question and in no way intimates whether the Tribunal would follow Grimm if and when such issue is again presented.
