2. The provisions of this Agreement relative to the granting of treatment not less favourable than that accorded to the investors of any third State shall not be construed so as to oblige one Contracting Party to extend to the investors of the other the benefit of any treatment, preference or privilege resulting from:

Such compensation shall amount to the fair market value of the investment affected immediately before the expropriation or before the measures of dispossession became public knowledge and it shall be freely transfereable in freely usable currencies from the contracting Parties;
- d. the compensation shall be paid without undue delay. If the compensation is not paid within six(6) months, it shall after that date attract interest at the prevailing commercial rate as agreed upon by both Parties until the date of payment.

ARTICLE 6

Transfers

1. Each Contracting party shall, subject to its laws, regulations and national policies allow without unreasonable delay the transfer in any freely usable currency:

4. If within the periods specified in paragraph 3 of this Article the necessary appointments have not been made, either Contracting Party may, in the absence of any other agreement, invite the President of the International Court of Justice to make the necessary appointments. If the President is a national of either Contracting Party of if he is otherwise prevented from discharging the said function, the Vice-President shall be invited to make the necessary appointments. If the Vice-President is a national of either Contracting Party or if he too is prevented from discharging the said function, the member of the International Court of Justice next in seniority who is not a national of either Contracting Party shall be invited to make the necessary appointments.

5. The arbitral tribunal shall reach its decision by a majority of votes. Such decision shall be binding on both Contracting Parties. Each Contracting Party shall bear the cost of its own member of the tribunal and of its representation in the arbitral proceedings; the cost of the Chairman and the remaining costs shall be borne in equal parts by the Contracting Parties. The tribunal may, however, in its decision direct that a higher proportion of costs shall be borne by one of the two Contracting Parties, and this award shall be binding on both Contracting Parties. The tribunal shall determine its own procedure.
